

1

1 PINK POODLE ROCKER Sure to become any girl's best friend, this soft and furry rocker from Charm Company features a solid wood base and wood handles for extra durability. And best of all, this doggy barks. $122. Available at Sweetpea Children's Emporium, 819 W Esplanade Ave, Kenner, 504.464.4464.

2

2 MAMMA'S MILK Odd name, but cool product: this baby and toddler baby carrier combines function with great style—there are no snaps, buckles or even excessive hanging fabric. Designed to carry children from birth up to three years of age, the sling—available in a wide assortment of fabrics—offers seven different positions. $45-$85. www.mammasmilk.com

cool stuff we dig

3

3 SWADDLEKEEPER Duplicating the hospital nurses' secure swaddling of your newborn is easier for novices with this nifty product, a wrap with velcro fasteners that keeps your baby's swaddled receiving blanket in place. The padded head support gently cradles his head and neck; a V-shaped leg opening allows him to kick. Comes in cotton, soft cotton flannel or plush bubble fleece fabric. $24 - $36. www.swaddlekeeper.com

4

4 KABOOST Does your child balk at using his booster seat, but still come up a bit short at the table? Then check out Kaboost, which raises the height of kitchen and dining room chairs from their base. Compact and portable, it supports up to 300 pounds and features a wide base to make chairs more stable, according to its manufacturer. $39.95. www.kaboost.com

